WOMEN IN TEARS AS PASTOR IS CONVICTED

Accusation of Attack on Gertrude Lamson, 15-Year-Old Parishoner, Is Accepted as Truth

COURT REFUSES TO GRANT NEW BAIL

Crowd Outside Courtroom Cheers as Decision Is Announced, But Defendant Is Calm

OROVILLE, May 13.—Rev. Madison Slaughter today was found guilty of having attacked Gertrude Lamson, aged 15.

This was his second trial. In the first trial the jury disagreed.

The jury was out twenty-two and one-half hours. The verdict was reported at 9:30 o'clock. A recommendation of mercy was made by the jury.

There was a tense silence as the foreman handed the paper to the clerk, who read it.

Slaughter manifested no emotion. Mrs. Slaughter, who was by his side, did not show any excitement, but Mrs. Camper, one of the principal defense witnesses, and a close personal friend of the minister, went into hysterics.

Attorney Schooner for the defense immediately asked that new bonds be fixed, but Judge Gregory refused and turned Slaughter over to the custody of the sheriff.

The crowd in the courtroom was quiet when the verdict was read, but those in the corridors and clustered outside the courtroom cheered lustily. Their applause could be heard in court.

Slaughter was taken to jail, with his wife, daughters and women sympathizers crying at his heels, he kissed them all good-bye save Mrs. Ida Camper.

MAXIMUM FIFTY YEARS.
With tears streaming down her face, Mrs. Camper grasped Slaughter's arm, pulled him back to her and kissed him. She supported the minister as one of the principal alibi witnesses for the defense.

Attorney for Slaughter announced they would seek an appeal immediately.

The maximum sentence for the offense of which Rev. Slaughter was convicted is fifty years and the minimum one year.

Quietly Gertrude Lamson, older than her years, heard the news of Slaughter's conviction.

"I expected that they would do so," said the girl. "I do not see how they could do anything else."

She seldom smiles now. With head erect and shoulders squared, Slaughter walked through the door of his jail cell. He did not want to talk.

SMILES AT SHERIFF.
"What is the use of my saying anything?" he queried resignedly. "I suppose that everyone who goes to jail says he is innocent—do they not, Mr. Sheriff?" And the minister gave his custodian a jolly smile. "I told the jury I was innocent, but the jury did not believe me. Why should I say anything now?"

Attorneys for Slaughter charged that he was prejudged and convicted by the newspapers, and that eleven men.

ROANOKE SENT TO BOTTOM BY OVERLOAD, CHARGE

Widow of Second Officer Accuses Owner of Lost Steamship.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—A story to the effect that the liner Roanoke was overloaded when it left on its fatal voyage last Monday were made today by Mrs. John G. Dennis, widow of the steamer's second officer, whose corpse was found in a drifting lifeboat southward of Port San Luis by the Pacific Mail liner City of Para yesterday.

"I have been robbed of my husband," said Mrs. Dennis. "The Roanoke's interior was sawed away to make room for a drifting lifeboat. All day Monday a gang of carpenters was busy aboard and my husband told me they were removing beams, braces and everything to make more room. He said he did not believe the Roanoke would get further than San Pedro and he promised to quit her there."

Disorders in Greece Becoming Serious

ATHENS, May 13.—Revived disorders on the Greek island of Samos, off the west coast of Asia Minor, have assumed a serious aspect. The government is taking vigorous measures.

French Hears Data on Working Conditions

LOS ANGELES, May 13.—Opening the investigation of working conditions of electricians and other tradesmen here today, Industrial Accident Commissioner W. J. French said that 200 accidents occur every working day in California.

Divine Healer Is Arrested in N. Y. Throng of Cripples in His Rooms

NEW YORK, May 13.—Rev. Francis Schlatter, 76 years old, known throughout the country as the "Divine healer," was arrested here last night on a charge of practicing medicine without a license. When detectives went to his apartment they had to force their way through a throng of cripples waiting to be "healed."

The Divine healer Schlatter, one of several "prophets" who arose throughout the land shortly after the exploits of John Alexander Dowie, founder of Zion City, became current, used to his and "cures" in Oakland. He occupied with another strange person a cottage on Pittsburg street near West, to which all manner of persons came for healing or consolation.

He was involved in a sensational incident one night when as a result of one of his cases, his home was entered abruptly by an angry man and the police were summoned to quell the disturbance.

Schlatter then was a local celebrity. He was in the habit of riding through the streets on a bicycle, his brown robe and long beard and hair flowing in the wind.

Before then he had been in Seattle, and other cities.

He passed as the reincarnation of Biblical prophets.

Sheepshead Bay Opens Speedway Racing Meet

NEW YORK, May 13.—Four automobile races are on the card at Sheepshead Bay today—the real opening of the 1916 season of speedway racing in America. They are:

The Metropolitan trophy, 150 miles, $6000 for first, $3500 for second, $2000 for third, $1500 for fourth, $1000 for fifth, $600 for sixth and $400 for seventh.

The Queen's cup race, 50 miles, $1000 for first, $600 for second, $400 for third, $300 for fourth and $200 for fifth.

Coney Island cup race, 20 miles, $600 for first, $350 for second, $250 for third, $200 for fourth and $100 for fifth.

The William Kemble handicap cup, a consolation event for the non-winners of prizes in the first three, ten miles, $400 for first, $200 for second, $175 for third, $125 for fourth and $100 for fifth.

The bowl is in great condition for the meet, says Manager Eberard Thompson, who expects to see new records being made.

In the first race staged on the course Gil Anderson in a Stutz hung up a world's record of 102.66 miles per hour for 50 miles. Within a short time Durio Resta went over the 100-mile distance in a Peugeot at the rate of 105.39 miles per hour.

JILTED SUITOR OF MISS SPRING TELLS OF WOES

Near-Bride Goes to Hills, While Covell Details "Mistakes."

BERKELEY, May 13.—Miss Dorothy Spring, principal in what has been a veritable motion picture drama, in which the scene opened with an automobile accident in Hawaii and closed with a marriage, dropped at the altar, left today for her father's mine in Calaveras county, where she will dream and try to forget.

Lyman Covell, the other principal in the recent events, will probably continue in the employ of the American Can Company.

"I am afraid," said Miss Spring today, "that there are many instances of conduct on Mr. Covell's part which eliminate him as a possibility."

Covell, whose every move has been looked into by the irate father of the almost-bride, admitted that he had been arrested in Santa Cruz in 1913 on a charge of theft.

"But I was exonerated on that charge," he declared, "and I can prove it. Fred Swanton, who was responsible for my arrest, later apologized to me."

Covell also admitted freely his former marriage in Santa Cruz in 1912.

"I was only 21 years of age at the time," he said. "But it was no time," he said. "The trouble was a frivolous love affair with me. It was very serious. Then my wife began to leave me several days at a time. Finally, when she began to return with clothes that I had not bought for her and when I discovered that she was 30 years of age and had not secured a final decree of divorce from her former husband, I regretted my marriage. When she eloped with my best friend shortly afterward I secured an annulment of the marriage."

Miss Spring and Covell were introduced to each other by the sister of Jack Condon, the latter an entertainer at a San Francisco cafe, according to Covell, and when asked what he planned to do would only reply that "life would not be complete without her."

Dr. J. C. Pedon, formerly affianced to Miss Spring, sent a telegram from Philadelphia yesterday and Miss Spring stated that she had broken her engagement with him a month ago.

"There are two reasons," said Miss Spring this morning. "I do not care to discuss either of them."

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—Robert D. Cranston, age 87, one of the best known realty operators and builders in San Francisco, dropped dead from heart failure at his home, 885 Ashbury street, last night.

WOMEN VS. PETERSEN AS POLICE CHIEF

Civic Center to Voice Protest at Council Meeting

Controversy Brings Out Secret Memoirs of Several

Women of the Oakland Civic Center of the California Civic League are opposed to the appointment of Captain of Inspectors Walter J. Petersen as chief of police to succeed William F. Woods, who will resign his rank of lieutenant and will be reassigned to the Melrose district Monday. The women will attend the council session at which an investigation will be made into the matter of what caused the removal of Chief Woods.

The following resolution has been adopted by the Civic Center in connection with the controversy:

Resolved, That we, the members of the Oakland Civic Center, communicate with the proper authorities, opposing the reappointment of Captain of Detectives Walter J. Petersen as chief of police of the city of Oakland, on account of his well-known opposition to the enforcement of the red light abatement law.

Commissioner Jackson seems to have a remarkable tendency to dig up explanations of his acts from his inner consciousness only when those acts come under criticism," said Dr. R. M. Higgins, who resigned from the position of city health officer some months ago, on the grounds that Commissioner Jackson had shown him of authority in his own department for political reasons because he was a friend of Mayor Davis.

"At the time of my resignation there was no mention made of these alleged reflections upon the committee from the Oakland Civic Center," said Dr. Higgins, "nor did Dr. Jackson ever suggest that he had placed that meaning upon certain paragraphs in a confidential report I had made to him."

WOMEN MENTIONED.
Dr. Higgins made this statement when he read the statement of Dr. Jackson, made in the city council yesterday, that his removal had been made because of "reflections" upon women welfare workers of Oakland.

"Commissioner Jackson apparently injected this into his statement merely as a slap at me, and not because it had anything to do with the resignation or removal of Chief of Police Woods," said Dr. Higgins. "It is an explanation long after the fact, just as in the case of Chief Woods. In that case Jackson appears to have obtained Woods' resignation by explaining that it was merely for political reasons. When he had the resignation in his pocket he called Woods a traitor and announced that he had removed him because he had been joy riding in the Piedmont hills."

"I do not know whether the Piedmont hills are an especially improper place, but I am willing to believe Woods' statement that he was guilty of joy riding in the Piedmont hills. I am also willing to believe Woods' statement, which Dr. Jackson has contradicted, that Dr. Jackson never mentioned to him the allegation that he had been 'joy riding' as a reason for asking for his resignation, for I firmly believe that this was trumped-up charge, invented after Dr. Jackson had discovered that his removal of Woods had not met with the public approval, or at least the lack of public notice for which he had hoped."

WHY HE RESIGNED.
"So in his belated attack upon me, my resignation was tendered and accepted long ago. The reasons for it were obvious and were well known. I was Mayor Davis' friend. Dr. Jackson could not control me, and when he discovered this he removed the health departments having to do with the inspection of meats, markets, water and milk from under my direction. Then he took me out of the city health department, and I felt that when I was placed in a position of responsibility with regard to the health of the city, without the necessary power and control to guard health conditions, it was wiser to resign. My removal from Jackson's office, and I would not make this statement had it not been for this unprovoked attack upon me."

JACKSON'S REPLY.
"I removed Chief Woods for the reasons I have already stated—for incompetency, for demoralizing the discipline of the department, and because he had used the police automobile to go on joy rides at night," Commissioner Jackson asserted.

"I do not think it would have helped the discipline of the department to have blazoned these reasons abroad. It was much better to permit Woods to step down quietly. It would have saved him much humiliation."

"Then come these charges and insinuations against me. The occasion was used to make capital for the recall campaign. At first I thought it would be better to ignore such absurd insinuations. But as the matter stands, I have decided to combat full and impartial investigation into the whole matter."

"An opportunity will be given Monday to go fully into the cause."

Pope to Wait For Invitation No Peace Move to Be Formally Initiated

ROME, May 13.—Pope Benedict will initiate no formal peace movement until he is formally invited to do so, it was authoritatively stated today. If the apostolic delegate in Washington delivered the peace message on his recent visit to President Wilson as he is persistently reported to have done, he was merely sounding out Wilson's views.

The Pope would not have acted without obtaining the President's invitation. In spite of rumors to the contrary, the Pope sent no message to the Kaiser during the German-American crisis and in no way interfered with the negotiations between Berlin and Washington.

Allied diplomats in Rome declare that the Pope has been informed that the allies have not yet considered even tentative peace measures.

U. S. ARMY OF 654,000 MEN IS UP TO CONGRESS

House and Senate Conference Agrees on Defense Measure.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—A trained defense force of 654,000 men is proposed in the army bill which the House and Senate conference reported to both houses of Congress today.

The compromise measure includes all the provisions of the big army advocates urged except the federal reserve. Both chambers urged passage of the bill and action is expected Monday.

The defense force as provided consists of 208,000 regulars in peace times and 448,000 militiamen, 800 for each Senator and Representative.

The act reserves specific power for the government to take over any manufacturing plant in times of war for the purpose of making munitions. It also provides for the appointment of a board consisting of two civilians and three officers named by the President to investigate the proposition of the government manufacturing all munitions. The board must report by next New Year's.

AIR NITRATE PLANT.
The measure appropriates $20,000,000 for a government nitrate plant to extract nitrates from the air for use in munitions. The surplus will be sold to private civilians for a livelihood. It is made plain.

No definite monthly hours are fixed for the training of private soldiers in trades. Soldiers must not come into contact with civilians for a livelihood, it is made plain.

The terms of enlistment are fixed at seven years in either the active or reserve branches of the army; but, if competent, soldiers may be dismissed at the end of one active year or recommended of their captains.

Henceforth all militiamen must take oath to the United States as well as to their individual states. This is the principal "federalization" step. The oath requires them to engage in active service outside the United States if the President calls on them to do so.

SENATE PLAN FOLLOWED.
In the agreement on the regular army the Senate bill system of organization was retained as a substitute for the House system, which would have required a maximum army of 1,400,000 men. The regular line of the army, the bill now provides, can never go below 150,000, and its maximum strength in time of peace would be 175,000 officers and men. In this calculation, however, five per cent of the strength of 206,500. The President is authorized to increase the regular army divisions to maximum strength without Congressional action.

Under the conference agreement the regular army would consist of sixty-five regiments of infantry, twenty-five regiments of cavalry, twenty-one regiments of field artillery, a coast artillery corps of 80,000 officers and men, a signal corps of 33,377 men, including the aviation section, and seven regiments of engineers. In the aviation section the number of officers is increased from a total of sixty to 148, including one colonel, one lieutenant-colonel, eight majors, twenty-four captains and 114 first lieutenants.

The organization plan contemplates attaining the full peace strength with five years of preparation in the original preparedness plans.

General officers of the line would be increased by four major generals and nineteen brigadier generals. The general staff of the army would be increased from thirty-four officers to fifty-two. The provision of the bill, which would have placed five officers of the national guard in the

Police Search Park for Body of Haase

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—Every inch of Golden Gate park and all the surrounding cemeteries were searched today for the body of William Haase, assailant of Charles O. Swanberg of the Portola-Louvre cafe, and this afternoon officers will be sent into Sutter forest. The theory adopted by the police and almost accepted by the family is that Haase has killed himself, and if his body is not found, it is thought he jumped into the bay.

A police description was circulated about the state today as follows: William Haase, thought to be deceased; German descent, 27 years; 5 feet 6 inches; 150 pounds; dark complexion, dark wavy hair, smooth

VILLA AND THOUSAND FOLLOWERS LOCATED

Carranzistas Said to Be on Way to Aid Americans Capture Bandits Raiding Texas Towns

CAVALRYMEN ON RESCUE MISSION

Officials Fear De Facto Troops May Be Cause of Trouble When no Withdrawal Is Heard

NAMUQUITA, Mex., May 12 (by wireless to Columbus, N. M., May 13).—Francisco Villa and 1100 followers are reported at a ranch near Carrizosa, forty miles northwest of La Ascension. The band was reported scattered along Rio Carrizosa and to have been recruited from Sonora, with a sprinkling of Villa's original escort.

The redistribution of United States troops continues.

MARATHON, Texas, May 13.—Major George T. Langhorne and his flying squadron of the Eighth cavalry are searching the hills of Mexico today in a supreme effort to surprise the Mexican raiders of Glenn Springs and Boquillas. They seek to rescue Jessa Deemer and two other Americans, John Woodson and P. Balla, according to information reaching here today.

El Paso, Tex., May 13.—With the conference over American troop dispositions in Mexico ended, and with inactivity of General Pershing's columns promised for the time being, the border today began inquiring as to the whereabouts of Francisco Villa, the cause of all the trouble.

From Chihuahua City information was received that Pablo Lopez, Villa lieutenant caught near Santa Ysabel, where last February he murdered eight Americans, has not been executed. He is being allowed to recover from his wounds before being put to death.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—Despatch of 1500 Carranzista troops northward toward the border in the Big Bend districts of Coahuila, reported in border advices, was regarded by officials here today as possibly indicating that the Carranzistas are making efforts to strengthen their position in the border region.

Reports that the expedition might have a hostile purpose were not regarded seriously by administration officials. They intimated that the action tended to strengthen the belief that American and Mexican military authorities at El Paso had reached an unwritten agreement on co-operation along the border to prevent further bandit raids.

Nothing untoward occurs the expedition hopes for a quick cleanup in the policing of Northern Chihuahua. The hope of catching Francisco Villa himself is not great. The big question now is, can the Carranzistas be checked after they learn that the American expedition refuses to withdraw?

Privately officials said that there might be an outbreak at any time. General Hugh Scott is en route to Washington with his information concerning the situation, which will be used for the guidance of the government in further proceedings.

Ambassador Designate Arredondo is expected to undertake withdrawal negotiations soon, but his task is hopeless, according to persistent reports.

Soldiers Poisoned by Cyanide in Streams

EL PASO, May 13.—Cyanide of potassium and powdered glass have been thrown into the waterholes and along the streams of the farthest front of the Pershing column, according to evidences developed at the Fort Bliss hospital.

A number of soldiers returned from south of Casas Grandes are suffering at the post hospital with all the symptoms of cyanide poisoning, including heart failure and lung failure. They have not died, however, to be due to the fact that an insufficient quantity of the poison had been taken into their systems.

A telegram has been received from Lieutenant-Colonel C. A. Bell, chief of staff to General Pershing, asking for information on chemical tests to locate cyanide of potassium in water, and asking how to discover glass splinters when they have been covered with grease so that they float.

Four army lieutenants have been detailed to take instruction on the cyanide tests. They will complete the supercilious test instruction at the earliest possible moment and proceed to the headquarters in the field for assignment.

"We will poison the water the gringos drink, and they will die like rats," was one of the threats reported to army officials at the outset of the punitive expedition. "We will poison them with the cyanide in American-owned mines."

SLAUGHTER GUILTY, IS JURY VERDICT

here of the jury admitted an opinion on the case. Across the courtroom sat Mrs. Slaughter and her daughter, a former little group, sobbing convulsively, their grief audible in the deserted room. "I know my husband is innocent," sobbed Mrs. Slaughter. "If only every-thing had not seemed so imminent and inevitable, and if only the jury could have been told the truth about Gertrude Lamson."

Next Thursday a motion for a new trial will be made and bail again asked.

HAD OAKLAND CHURCH. Medison Slaughter, whose two trials have attracted attention to Butte county through the winter, was formerly pastor of Oakley Baptist church of this city, serving eighteen months in the pulpit before his resignation was demanded. In 1905-06 he was in Woodland, where, as pastor, he was accused by 15-year-old Betty Haddon of improper conduct. The church board of trustees heard the story of the child and acquitted the minister. In 1911, as pastor of the First Baptist church of Porterville, he plunged the community into an uproar by his alleged seduction of a 15-year-old girl, Gertrude Lamson, daughter of Frederick Lamson, a trustee, before the Butte county grand jury with a shocking story of criminal intimacy between himself and the pastor, extending over a long period.

TRIALS IN JURY. After hearing the child's story for two days, the county jury brought in a true bill, indicting the pastor on five counts. He was at once arrested on a bench warrant, placed in jail, and the county grand jury indicted him on five counts. The county court, after hearing the child's story, indicted him on five counts. Increasing Talk Of Peace Heard English War Lord Hints at Possibility

LONDON, May 13.—The latest peace overtures said to be of German origin, while not as insistent and impossible as previous statements on the same subject, certainly do not yet offer a basis for negotiations," said Lord Robert Cecil, Minister of War Trade, in discussing with the Associated Press the latest reported German peace terms.

"We have never received either of-fer or withdrawal, any direct suggestion from Germany, and the only indirect overtures we are aware of appear in the speeches of Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg and the recent German note to America. We would not think of discussing, or even considering, any overtures without consulting our allies. No formal offer of conference for this purpose ever has been taken place."

"In diplomatic procedure a neutral is hardly likely to make any suggestion of peace terms unless certain they are likely to be accepted."

"If Germany should decide to approach us through the medium of the United States, the latter would have to use its own judgment as to whether or not to deliver the request."

"While there is no doubt of the internal condition of Germany, Lord Robert declared that increasing rumors of peace overtures indicate there is some truth to the story that the central powers are in desperate straits."

PETERSEN OPPOSED BY CIVIC WORKERS. Of removing Woods from the position of chief of police, and to establish the fact, I believe, that I was wholly justified in the course I pursued.

"Woods was not removed to make way for anyone else. I have no choice at the present time for the appointment of his successor. I shall so announce to the city council, and the council will be given an opportunity of selecting a new chief of police. Of course, he will have to be a man who is acceptable to me. But I am open for suggestions and will accept a good man who is efficient and honest and knows his business."

"The affidavits upon which Commissioner Jackson depends to establish his charge that Woods was 'joy riding in the police automobiles in the midnight hours,' it became known today, were furnished by Cecil Hitchcock, head of the Hitchcock patrol service, which takes in the Piedmont district."

WOODS NOT FEARFUL. "I am not afraid of these affidavits," said Chief Woods today. "I can establish the fact that I was not joy riding and that my presence in the automobile on the occasion which must have given rise to these accusations was entirely legitimate."

"Dr. Jackson has accused me of being false to my agreements," said Mayor Davis. "But he himself has been to one to fail to keep his word. He and Edwards and I held a conference, and it was agreed that Edwards should be placed in the street department in place of Billy Raccus, and that M. K. Miller should be made superintendent of streets. Miller made a survey of that department, and he found it in a state of chaos. He could save the taxpayers $4,000 in running the department without impairing its efficiency."

'BOYS' RELATION TO BOOKS, THEME

Subject Forms Important Part at Conference of Charities and Corrections.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 13.—Children and their relation to books formed an important part of the program of address today at the meeting of the National Conference of Charities and Corrections.

"The Boy and the Book" was the subject of a paper by W. L. Kuser, superintendent of the Industrial School for Boys, Eldora, Iowa.

"The boy of the greatest tragedies in the literature of the world," he said, "is to be denied the pleasure, the benefit and the culture to be derived from the perusal and study of good books. Many a young chap realizes his needs and appreciates the value of the book, but he is denied the pleasure, the benefit and the culture to be derived from the perusal and study of good books."

"Every boy should have his own library case or at least a shelf of the general home library which he can call his own. He should, by measure, be permitted to select his books, e. g., of a number of good books let him take the one he wants. It may not be the best of the lot, but he will enjoy more the reading of it. He may choose a Treasury of the best books, e. g., of a number of good books let him take the one he wants. It may not be the best of the lot, but he will enjoy more the reading of it."

"The Value of Books in Institutions for the Special Classes" was the subject of a paper by Edith Kathleen Jones, McLean Hospital, Waverly, Mass. Among other things she said:

"What constitutes a library? Not a mass of books lying idle on the shelves. Not even a well selected, classified and catalogued collection of books left to itself. A library is never finished; it is a dead, it must be vital and progressive to be of any use."

"Private hospitals and the larger prisons and reform schools should have their own libraries and develop individual libraries. State institutions perhaps cannot afford adequate salaries for this. Iowa, Minnesota and Nebraska have worked out solutions of this problem—they have state institutions library superintendents appointed by the state board of control in the first two cases and by the state library commission in Nebraska."

SOCIAL IDEALS ASSURED. "The dominance of social ideals in our American life is now assured. The public is demanding that the government realize that it is the business of government, as the preamble to the National Constitution clearly states, to promote the general welfare. It is under this view of the broad purpose of government that it has now come to be clearly regarded as the duty of the nation, of the state and of the city to concern itself with the special problems of human life, of community efficiency and betterment, just as much as it is the duty of one of these government agencies to concern itself with the question of tariffs, foreign relations, commercial trade, police protection, etc."

"Dayton has undertaken in the organization of the department of public welfare to give expression to this new conception of the duty of the state to all her citizens. Under the new commission manager plan of government, the Dayton charter has made provision for the organization of perhaps the broadest and most far-reaching department of public welfare ever had in this country. Under the present plan of the department of public welfare includes in the scope of its activity, seven divisions—public health, recreation, parks, correction and reform, public institutions, public relief, legal aid and municipal employment. The salaried force of employees covering the work of this department numbers seventy-four."

CONSOLIDATION OF CITIES 'INEVITABLE'

Secretary Caine Discusses Issue in Light of Hegemann Report.

That consolidation of Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley, Emeryville and the other east bay cities, to form what will eventually be the greatest city on the Pacific coast, is inevitable within the next few years, was the assertion of Secretary Joseph E. Caine of the Chamber of Commerce, speaking yesterday before the Oakland Center of the California Civic League at the Hotel Oakland.

Caine pointed out that every feature of the Werner-Hegemann city planning report indicated this result and that every logical consideration led to this solution of the difficulties of the east bay cities.

The Hegemann report was the principal subject discussed. Caine told briefly the history of the report and described all the signs of growth and progress found by the German expert. He took up the various features one by one, dealing particularly with the expert's recommendations in which Oakland women are interested, such as those regarding parks, playgrounds and the shores of Lake Merritt.

In regard to Oakland harbor the speaker said Hegemann's reference to the similarity to the harbor of Hamburg, Germany, Caine said, regarded the estuary as a future great harbor of international trade, a fact borne out by latest developments. Hegemann's plans for streets were also discussed briefly and park plans were described at length.

"One thought impresses itself upon the student of these plans," he declared, "and that is that Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, Emeryville and Albany are, in fact, one city. Try as we may by the artificial methods of separate governments and diverging thoughts to keep them apart, when ever we contemplate the situation honestly and with an open mind, we must be forced to the conviction that the consolidation of these municipalities must come. Experience teaches us not to oppose the inevitable and the opportunity of the east bay cities in a few years to create one of the greatest cities on the Pacific coast."

District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes spoke on the operation of the "lazy husband" law in Los Angeles. He said that a similar plan is being drafted in his office for the prosecution of men who neglect their families in this county. Miss Beatrice McCaff, head of the Women's Protective Bureau, has been advocating the plan for some time. Hynes explained that the system works especially well in cases where there are children to be considered. He went into detail as to its legal phases.

FORT DOUAUMONT TEUTON DEATH PIT. French Expect to Fape Attack on Right Banks of Meuse.

PARIS, May 13.—Several heavy German attacks near Fort Douaumont and Thiaumont, following a series of terrific bombardments, were repulsed with slaughter during the night, the war office announced today. The French held their ground to the inch.

"On the west bank of the Meuse," said the statement, "the French gained near hill 287. Artillery struggles continued without cessation in Arroucourt wood and near hill 304. A German attack on the right bank of the Meuse is expected. Following their custom of shifting their assaults from one bank to the other, the Germans began their preparation for the Douaumont-Thiaumont attack Thursday night. A strong German reconnoitering party near Enrage was checked before it reached open ground."

STANDING ARMY OF 206,000 MEN, PLAN

Nitrate Plant and Federalized Militia Included in Measure.

A provision for vocational training for men in the regular army regulated by the Secretary of War was left in the bill and the House proposal for government operation of nitrate manufacturing plants, to cost not more than $2,000,000, also was accepted. Selection of sites is left to the President. The product of the plants when not needed in war time may be sold for fertilizer under executive regulations.

Authority for the government to seize and operate private plants for manufacture of munitions of war in time of need is given and the President is empowered to appoint a board of five men, two civilians and three army officers, to investigate the advisability of establishment of government plants for the manufacture of munitions. The board would commence work on January 1, 1917.

MILITARY BOARD. The President is authorized to appoint a board to investigate the mobilization of industries in time of war. The regular army enlistment is fixed at seven years, three with colors and four in reserve, but if enlisted men master military training in one year and wish to retire to the reserve, they may be permitted on proving efficiency and upon recommendation of superior officers.

Final agreement was reached on the long-disputed measure after a short session of the conference committee. Another meeting will be held Monday to sign the report.

"I think that we have an excellent bill," said Chairman Chamberlain of the Senate military affairs committee. Chairman May of the House committee also praised the report and approval by both houses is expected.

The volunteer reserve army of 251,000 men provided in the Senate bill goes out, leaving the reserve army to the National Guard, which will be federalized, according to provisions of the House bill.

The National Guard, at maximum strength, recruited on the basis of 800 men to each Congressional district, would aggregate a total of 425,000 men. This reserve force, together with the regular army of 254,000 war strength, would produce the combined defense force of 679,000 men.

WRIT MAY HALT INSURANCE RATE

Fuel Dealers Carry Case Into Court in Effort to Show Integrity.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12.—The District Court of Appeals yesterday issued a writ of mandate to State Insurance Commissioner J. D. Phelps to "desist from interfering with the activities" of the insurance brokers, whose license was recently suspended in the contention over the industrial accident insurance rate for retail coal dealers. The writ was issued by the court, instructing Phelps to either immediately revoke his suspension order or show cause on May 22 why he should not do so.

WRIT A CLIMAX.
This writ from the Appellate Court comes as a climax in the battle of the coal dealers with the insurance Commissioner, a battle which has broadened to include the attention, at least, of the insurance companies, and which has shown signs of bringing a complete change to the present methods of writing industrial accident insurance.

Attorney John Williams secured the writ for his clients, Lloyd, Spengler & Fraser, whose license had been revoked by Phelps, when they wrote insurance for Oakland retail coal dealers for less than the $5.20 rate.

The petition for the writ declares that this business can be written at a profit of $1.50.

At the same time that Phelps revoked the license of the insurance brokers, he ordered the Ocean Accident and Guarantee Corporation, the company in which the Oakland dealers' risks were written, to desist from writing any of that line of business for two years.

OPEN WHOLE CASE.
Phelps' action is made an issue, and the entire subject of accident insurance rate-making under the new minimum rate law, it is said, will probably be brought into question.

Commenting this morning upon the action started by the insurance brokers, J. Cal Ewing, president of the Retail Fuel Dealers of California, said:

"The unjust and State Insurance Commissioner Phelps has taken in this rate matter becomes more apparent every hour. Our association has 325 members throughout the state of California at the present time and we have heard directly or indirectly from the majority of them. They are indignant that any person should become a party to forcing such an imposition upon them and this feeling is justified.

In addition to our members we have heard from a great number of fuel dealers in the state that do not belong to our association. There are approximately 1100 odd fuel dealers within our state and all of them have been compelled to pay the rate of $3.30 per annum as against the regular rate of $1.50. The position taken by State Insurance Commissioner Phelps in forcing these concerns to pay this rate seems ridiculous. The new rate manual which goes into force June 1 allows a rate of $1.89. I believe it is plain to any intelligent person that these conditions, or the hazards of the Retail Fuel Dealers will be identical the same on June 1 of this year as they were on January 1, the date the $3.30 rate was forced upon us by State Insurance Commissioner Phelps."

SUIT MAY FOLLOW DEATH AT HOSPITAL

As the basis of a possible suit for damages against the Fidelity Hospital Association for alleged neglect to give proper medical aid to Thomas Fossick, who died at the hospital last Monday night, attorneys for the casualty insurance company which insured Fossick's life, are making a thorough investigation of the charges made Thursday night before the coroner's jury. The charges were made by Dr. P. P. Musser, city bacteriologist and physician for the insurance company; by J. J. Barnes, a representative of the Pills Drivers' Union, and by the daughter of the deceased.

Mrs. E. Chabot, president of the hospital association, and Mrs. J. P. Dunn, assistant treasurer, have denied that the man was neglected by the hospital authorities, and place the blame directly at the door of Dr. Musser, the attending physician, who brought Fossick to the hospital. They declare that Dr. Musser failed to ask for the use of the operating room when he knew that his patient was suffering from injuries that demanded a prompt operation. Mrs. Dunn declared that Dr. Musser asked for the use of the X-ray apparatus, but that this request was not made until the patient had been in the hospital several hours. She stated that the question of money or of the bill had nothing to do with the matter.

"The whole thing was a squabble over money," said Dr. Musser today. "They would not let us use the apparatus until they were assured who would pay the bill and that the bill would be paid. That is the whole gist of the matter."

"What was the use of asking for the operating room if the apparatus was refused? It is foolish to lay the blame on the responsibility. The whole matter was a matter of money and haggling over who should pay the bill."

Miss Fossick testified at the coroner's inquest that I had done all that was possible to save her father's life."

WAR SECRETARY URGES READINESS

Preparedness, He Tells Jersey Bankers, Should Be Threefold.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 12.—Secretary of War Baker in an address before the annual convention of the New Jersey State Bankers' Association here yesterday urged a permanent alignment of the nation's affairs with a view to a threefold mobilization of its resources in case of war. Industrial and financial preparedness, he said, were as essential as military preparedness. His only reference to the Mexican situation was that a solution to the "problem" appeared near at hand.

The preparedness sentiment, Secretary Baker said, which is now sweeping the land and sending both men and women to military and naval training camps, is reaching into other fields and the concentration of these forces could be secured as readily as those of the army and navy. He predicted that Congress, now busy with reorganization of the military feature of national defense, soon would be preparing for the co-ordination of the industrial and other resources of the land.

That in case of war "should it ever come, we shall have not only the equipment of men and the mobilization of arms, but a preconcerted program to enable a speedy mobilization of our industrial and financial resources."

Baker said there was cause for profound satisfaction in the fact that out of the many opinions expressed regarding the attitude the administration should take on international questions as affected by the European war, "there has never appeared evidence that this country accepts the philosophy that war is a good or necessary thing."

CUMMINGS SCORES DEMOCRATIC WAYS

Preparedness and Patriotism Urged by Distinguished Iowan.

EUGENE, Ore., May 12.—Before an audience that packed the theater in which he spoke, Senator Cummins of Iowa last night scored the Democratic administration and the Democratic party for inefficiency, pleaded for a preparedness of spirit and a unity of purpose that will fuse the nation together in a flame of pure patriotism, referred to President Wilson's dealings with Mexico as the blackest page in American history, and referred to Justice Hughes as a man of whose views the people know nothing.

He termed the Underwood tariff law "the greatest compound of ignorance and incompetence that ever came from the human brain," and said that President's change of mind on the free tolls clause of the Panama canal act was the most abject surrender to a foreign power ever made by an American president.

"The first duty of American voters this fall is to drive Woodrow Wilson and the Democratic party out of power," he said. "They are individually patriotic, but they are incompetent and blundering."

METHODISTS GIVE LABOR RECOGNITION

Question Brought Before Convention; Dance Ban Made Lighter.

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., May 12.—By a vote of 447 to 250 the Methodist General Conference today eliminated that part of the report of the committee on social service which declared that a preference should be given union labor in all matters affecting employment "in so far as its methods are just and in so far as the right of unorganized men are not infringed upon."

Members of the church who play cards, dance and attend the theater will no longer be liable to expulsion, if recommendations made by a subcommittee of the general conference which has been considering the question of amusements are adopted by the committee on the state of the church and later by the conference.

The report was offered to the main committee late today and after an acrimonious discussion action was deferred until Monday.

By a vote of 10 to 3 the subcommittee recommended the elimination from the book of discipline of the clause prohibiting these amusements, and offered as a substitute an additional paragraph in which warning is made against the diversions. The effect of the proposed change is to remove the absolute prohibition, but to place the church on record as still strongly opposed to these forms of amusement.

"September Morn" on Stage at Pantages

"September Morn," the daring musical comedy and beauty show, comes to Oakland tomorrow for one week in vaudeville form.

A posing artist's model chorus will be featured in the play, which tells the story of the romance of the painting of the famous "September Morn." The situations are strikingly funny, many sensational, but there is no hint of offense or impropriety in the offering.

Death Follows Dredger Accident

LEON BERTY, who lost his life as the result of an accident on a dredger dyking in San Leandro bay for the Peoples Water Company, had an assistant assigned to help him by the dredging company, but an accident which caused his death would probably not have happened, according to the findings of a coroner's jury last night. While he was trying to swing a large away from the dredger the rope slipped on the capstan, caught his leg and so tore and crushed the flesh that the limb had to be amputated. Gangrene set in, causing his death at a sanitarium. Berty's home was at 765 Seventy-fifth avenue.

TUBERCULOSIS HAS ECONOMIC CAUSE

Public Health Service Sees Close Relation to Poverty.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—The close relation of poverty to tuberculosis is emphasized in a report made public today by the public health service after an extensive investigation in many cities. One-sixth of all tuberculosis cases it declares develop in cheap lodging houses, and one-fifth are traceable to occupational hazards and bad working conditions.

"The great factor underlying the entire problem," says the report, "is seemingly that of economic conditions."

As examples statistics gathered in Cincinnati and Pittsburgh are cited. In the former city, tuberculosis mortality was found to be three times as great as in the better sections and the average monthly income of 197 families in which cases were found was computed at $57. Much the same condition was discovered in Pittsburgh, where nearly 20,000 factory workers submitted to physical examinations in the course of the investigation. The report also points out the varying effect of immigration on the increase of tuberculosis. It says: "Almost without exception cities with a high percentage of Irish, Scandinavian and German stock, and those in which the negro population is relatively large have a correspondingly high mortality, while those where the Italian and Jewish element is proportionately great have a low tuberculosis rate."

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"My trouble was ringworm and the way it started was by having a few pimples on my chin. At first I didn't pay very much attention but it kept on getting larger and I didn't know what to do. The skin was red and inflamed and my face was disfigured for the time being. The breaking out was itchy and it started to smart and my face was irritated."

"It came to my mind that Cuticura Soap and Ointment might be a benefit so I tried them. First I put the Ointment on and then bathed my face with Cuticura Soap. I kept it up for two weeks or less and I was healed." (Signed) William Beechey, Richland, Wash., July 24, 1915.

o skate or not to skate is a really serious question of the day. To skate means preliminary practice, with its more or less dire uncertainties. Not to skate means to be quite "out of it" next winter.

This, of course, is a terrifying contingency, and the general decision will doubtless be to skate, risking the uncertainties of practice.

Oakland society has graced the San Francisco rink this week, and every one has surrendered to the clear, free grace of the ice skaters and is keen to learn. Mrs. Clinton Walker, for one, has skated with an amazing skill. Clinton Walker is perfectly at home on the narrow blades, because he spent most of his boyhood on skates in Minneapolis.

Last evening a number of the Piedmont set were at the rink after Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Polvotto's dinner and thoroughly enjoyed watching the sport. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Willard Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lacey Brayton, Mrs. Hugh Webster, Mrs. Arthur Nahl, and from across the bay, Judge and Mrs. Harry Melvin, Judge and Mrs. Frederick Henshaw, Otto Wadsted and Harry Lambert.

Another party of the week included Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Walker, Mrs. Harry Bowen of New York, and one or two others, and on Thursday afternoon Mrs. Edward Lacey Brayton was an interested spectator with several friends.

Mrs. Willis Walker, who skates every winter in Minneapolis, is one of the stars of the season. She and Leslie Miller, with Mrs. Charles K. Harley, who learned only recently, but who skates with the careless grace of one raised to ice skating, are sharing honors.

Mrs. Walker skated one afternoon with her Piedmont brother-in-law, and was lovely to look at in a soft brown cloth suit and a small hat made entirely of rose colored velvet flowers and green leaves. She is singularly attractive anyway, with the most charming expression that must mean a charming personality, and she cuts figure "8's" with the easy indifference of Charlotte of the Hippodrome.

Most of the women wear tailored suits for skating, and of course, high shoes, most of them white. The skates are left fastened to them and the shoes are left at the rink to be doctored only for skating.

An eminent psychologist in the East has recently explained the ice skating madness with the lingo madness and war as reactions against the weight of civilization and modern knowledge. A formidable theory. Still it brings a certain serene sense of intellectual importance. One must be frivolous or go mad from too much thinking, is the idea.

LUNCHEON HOSTESS OF THE WEEK.

Mrs. Louis Henes, who as Evelyn Ellis was a favorite in the younger set, gave a pretty luncheon of the week at the Ellis home in Oakland avenue, entertaining a group of the young matrons of society. The table was very attractive, with baskets of pink sweet peas and among the guests were Mrs. Seymour Hall, Mrs. Shirley Houghton, Mrs. Charles Kenney, Mrs. Alla Chickering, Mrs. John Louis Lohse, Mrs. Stuart Hawley, Mrs. Lester Green, Mrs. George Towns, Mrs. Charles Bates Jr., Miss Clarisse Lohse and Mrs. William Thornton White.

Mrs. Louis Montague and Kenneth Montague, with Prof. Sheldon Rose, will leave next Thursday for the east to be absent several months. Yesterday Mrs. Philip Bowles gave a farewell luncheon for Mrs. Montague at "The Pines" and the affair marked the 30th wedding anniversary of the guest of honor. Montague is at present in New York, where Mrs. Montague will join him. She was Miss Daisy Paige of San Francisco before her marriage, and a girlhood friend of Mrs. Bowles, who was Miss Mary McNear.

MANY LUNCHEONS PLANNED FOR MAY.

Considering the luncheons of May, it would seem quite impossible for a socially popular person to "reduce" or, being slender, to remain so. How could anyone cling to a diet at a luncheon a day, with the persuading estheticism of menus these days? They serve rose-colored entrees and fees, soups and hors d'oeuvres, at rose luncheons nowadays.

One of the luncheon hostesses of next week will be Miss Isabel Percy who has returned from a visit to Portland, and who will entertain for Miss Kate Bennett, the fiancée of Henry Brizard, on May 20. The luncheon will take place at the Percy home in Grand avenue where Mrs. George Percy will assist her daughter in receiving.

Miss Percy is one of the interesting young women of Oakland society who has won a name for herself in art. She is decidedly clever and original and several of her pictures attracted attention in the Art Palace at the exposition. Incidentally, a number of her Oakland friends for this occasion, her paintings are now on exhibition.

Miss Tyson's engagement cups, by the way, are a varied and beautiful collection with several heirlooms included in it.

Mrs. Martin Kales' tea for her daughter-in-law-to-be on Wednesday will be one of the large affairs on this side of the bay, and in San Francisco, Miss Laura Baldwin is to give a luncheon for Miss Tyson at the Baldwin home in Presidio Terrace on May 19.

On Wednesday, May 24, Miss

Edith Rucker, who is to be one of Miss Tyson's bridesmaids, will give a luncheon and bridge party, entertaining the other bridesmaids and a dozen guests beside.

Mrs. Harry Weihe is to be matron of honor at the wedding, which will be an evening ceremony at the Tyson home in Alameda, with Miss Rucker, Miss Josephine Johnson and Miss Franc Pierce for bridesmaids, Arthur Kales as best man, and the ushers George Fowles, Dan Volkman and Jack Neville. Rev. Everett Couper, who, with Bishop Nichols, officiated at Miss Jean Tyson's wedding to Harry Weihe four years ago, will read the marriage service and there will be quite a large number of guests.

MISS TYSON PETED AT MANY PARTIES.

Pretty Miss Marie Tyson, whose wedding to Frank Kales is set for June 14, is being "guest of honor" at many parties. She is one of the most attractive girls in society and a great favorite in her set, with her individual charm. Consequently everyone has tried to "give something" for her before the wedding, and there is a rush of entertainments. Miss Tyson's engagement cups, by the way, are a varied and beautiful collection with several heirlooms included in it.

Visitors and brides-elect divide favors as guests of honor. One of the feted visitors is Mrs. Robert Easton of Santa Maria, whose wedding was an event of last year, and who is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Olney for several weeks.

Mrs. Easton was Miss Edith Olney, a very clever and charming girl, who has many warm friends in society here. One of the social affairs planned for her is a tea at which Mrs. Paul O. Tietzen and Miss Hazel Tietzen will entertain on May 25 and for which several hundred cards have been sent out.

A tea of this week was one given by Miss Lita McCartney of Berkeley who entertained in honor of Miss Dorothy Kincaid in the palm court of the Palace. Miss Kincaid's wedding to Carleton Curtis is to take place in the summer. She shared honors at the tea on Tuesday with Miss Conchita Sepulveda of Los Angeles and other guests were Mrs. Noble Newsom, Mrs. Samuel Hopkin, Mrs. Stewart McNab, Miss Lolita Carlisle, Miss Eleanor Knowland, Miss Olympia Goldarcena and Miss Roberta Lion.

NEWS OF MEMBERS OF THE SMART SET.

Mrs. Thomas Selby, who has been seriously ill most of the time since her return from Europe last year, is much improved. She is with her daughter, Mrs. A. J. Ralston in Berkeley, although she has been for several weeks the guest of relatives in Menlo Park. Mr. and Mrs. Percy Selby, the former of whom is Mrs. Selby's son, have closed their Menlo Park home and taken an apartment in San Francisco to be near her.

Mr. and Mrs. James McCandless of Honolulu have bought the Samuel Taylor residence in Piedmont and are to spend six months of the year here, keeping their Hawaiian place for a winter home. Mr. and Mrs. William Halbert, the latter of whom is their daughter, will give up their house in Fairmount avenue and live at the McCandless residence. Mr. and Mrs. McCandless have been here since the tragic death of their son a few months ago, and young Mrs. McCandless, who was Miss Marian Rodolph, spends much time with them.

Cards of sympathy have been sent by scores of Oakland friends to Mrs. John Jerome Alexander (Albertine Detrick), whose little son died last week at the Alexander home in Portland. Mrs. Alexander is a daughter of the Edington Detricks of Berkeley, and a niece of Mrs. George McNear Jr., and Mrs. Edward Lacey Brayton.

Miss Daisy Polk is leaving on Wednesday of next week for New York to sail on May 27 for France, where she will continue the relief work that won for her the commendation of President Wilson two years ago. She will visit friends in England before going to Paris. During her stay in California, Miss Polk has been the guest of Mrs. Duncan McDuffie, Mrs. Thomas Arthur Rickard and the Willis Polks in Burlingame.

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Jackson are planning a summer home in the east, and expect to leave about the first of June. Their summer home at Brookdale will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eugene Jackson during part of the season.

Miss Alice Palmer, who is the guest of Miss Gertrude Runyon in Sacramento, will leave next week with a party of Sacramento friends for the Yosemite, where they will spend a fortnight.

William Sharon and his daughter, Miss Esther Sharon, returned this week from a visit to Honolulu, where attractive Miss Sharon was entertained at several interesting affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sherman are to spend the coming fortnight in southern California.

MANY VISITORS AT MT. DIABLO CLUB.

The quiet charm of the Mt. Diablo Country Club has lured many visitors in the past week. After the Belgian market last week half a dozen of the women who had worked tirelessly for its success motored out for a restful week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lacey Brayton were among the visitors with a party of friends.

The informal Saturday evening dances are attractive affairs with sports costumes the favorite attire. This evening a number of guests will drive out from Oakland for the party, and tomorrow will be "Oakland Day" with an interesting musical program to mark it. Edith Fugans, the San Francisco flutist, will play, and Stella Margaret Jellicoe is to sing. Miss Florence Hyde will be the pianist and the concert is to be given under the trees near the clubhouse. Among recent visitors have been Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ghirardelli, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Willets of Berkeley, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hart of Piedmont, Miss Roberta Haslett and Mr. and Mrs. J. K. L. Schupp of Alameda, Mr. and Mrs. George Dickie and Herman Whitaker of Piedmont, with several parties from San Francisco.
